Unishippers Appoints Dan Lockwood to Fill New Position of President

Salt Lake City, UT (July 12, 2006) — Unishippers' Board of Directors today announced the creation of a President position to lead Unishippers into the future. Effective July 12, 2006, Dan Lockwood, Unishippers current Executive Vice President and Chief Products Officer, has been appointed to fill this important leadership position and report directly to the Chief Executive Officer, Steve Nelson.

Lockwood was selected based on his proven track record as a successful leader, entrepreneur and strategic thinker. At Unishippers, he has served as EVP and CPO since October 2002 where he has consistently demonstrated strategic vision, focus and leadership. He began his Unishippers career as a franchise owner when he purchased his first franchises in San Bernardino and Riverside, California in 1991. Since that time he has acquired franchises in Las Vegas and San Diego. During his time as a day-to-day franchisee, he won the company's prestigious Top Gun award for superior sales performance multiple times, and was selected by his peers to serve two terms as the President of the UFA, a franchisee representation body.

Prior to Unishippers, Dan worked in Portland for Traditional Concepts Management Group, the management arm for McCormick and Schmicks Seafood Restaurants, as the Operations and General Manager. He received a bachelor's degree from San Diego State University and continued his graduate studies there.

Steve Nelson, Unishippers CEO commented, "Dan's appointment is a strategic decision that will afford us the greatest opportunity to move our business to new levels of performance in terms of customer service and growth."
